FILMS

CITY

BEASTMASTER (M). With a title that would look great on a zoo's food-processor and a cast whose names seem to have been lifted from the Neanderthalian telephone book, 'The Beastmaster' at least promises to be ludicrous. The plot is composed of equal parts of 'Macbeth', 'Don Quixote', 'The Magic Flute' and 'The biographies of Robin Hood, Spartacus, St Francis of Assisi, Jesus, Joe Louis and Gerald Ford'. Capitol Two, 123 Swanston St, 63 7706. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

BUSTING LOOSE (M) plus IN GOD WE TRUST (M). Australia Two, 270 Collins St, 63 2837. Mon-Sat 11, 12, 45, 2, 30, 6, 7, 45. Sun 2, 15, 4, 5, 45, 7, 30.

CHAMELEON (R) plus GODDARD '80 (G). AFI, State Film Centre, 1 MacArthur St, East Melbourne, 347 6888. Tonight 7.30 pm.

THE CLASS OF 1984 (R). A particularly vicious and manipulative example of the R-rated violence that has occupied many of Melbourne's cinemas this year and impeded the release of worthwhile films. The setting is a US high school where members of the senior class have taken over. The script is packed with idiocies and overflowing with loose ends, and the cast look as if they are stumbling through it with the help of auto-cues. East End Three, 100 Bourke St, 663 4801. Mon-Fri 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 8, 15. Sat 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 7, 30, 9, 30. Sun 2, 15, 5, 8, 15.

DEAD MEN DON'T WEAR PLAID (M). Although 'Dead Men' is a nostalgic romp for those who are about 50 or over, it should also delight anyone who has ever succumbed to the lure of the small screen late at night or in midday movies. 'Dead Men' is an ingenious new form of parody. Clips from 17 thrillers and melodramas made between 1941 and 1950 become part of a new film. Part of the fun is guessing which familiar faces will pop up from the past, which memorable bits of old drama or hokum will be fitted into the weird plotline. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 8, 15. Sun 2, 15, 5, 8, 15.

E. T. (G). Forum One, 154 Flinders St, 63 8656. Mon-Sat 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 8, 15. Sun 2, 15, 5, 8, 15. Forum Two, 63 8656. Mon-Sat 10, 45, 1, 45, 4, 45, 7, 45. Sun 1, 45, 4, 45, 7, 45.

GAME OF DEATH II (M). Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Mon-Sat 12, 55, 2, 50, 8, 10. Sun 2, 30, 5, 15.

LAST CHANTS FOR A SILENT DANCE (M) plus THIRTEEN FRAGMENTS and THREE NARRATIVES (M). AFI, State Film Centre, 1 MacArthur St, East Melbourne, 347 6888. Tues 7.30 pm.

LOVELY HEARTS (M). Roma, 255 Bourke St, 63 2510. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

MAD MAX II (M). Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

THE MAN FROM SNOWY RIVER (NRC). Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 3081. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

MONTY PYTHON LIVE AT THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL (M). Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Fri 11, 30, 2, 30, 5, 30, 8, 15. Sat 11, 2, 5, 7, 30, 10. Sun 2, 30, 5, 15, 8.

POLTERGEIST (M). Has a stack and inane script with an otherwise attractive cast spending most of their time talking in irritating whispers. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

PORKY (R). The setting is Angel Beach High School, Florida, one of those cinematic institutions where the old purportedly teenage students look old

WHAT'S ON

THE COMPLETE WEEKLY ENTERTAINMENT DIRECTORY

Mention 'The Mill' to a son or daughter of Geelong and you'll probably hear a rave about an energetic little theatre group hell-bent on involving the whole community in local theatre.

You will probably be subjected to an ear-bashing about the weekly Mill nights in which locals are invited to take part in free movement, music, dance and drama workshops; and of course, how the Mill offers theatre to all groups, from the elderly in homes, to the unemployed, the disabled and even the inmates of Geelong prison.

What you won't hear from them, is that the Mill Theatre has now branched into the travel industry, particularly, the cruise business.

Regular patrons need not be worried, however, as the group is taking bookings for one cruise only — around the world trip (in four hours) on the good ship Floating Debt, otherwise known as the Mill Theatre converted into a 'magnificent cruise ship'.

The gal affair tomorrow is bite group's second fund-raising venture in its five-year history. 'Passengers' on the 'One Fantastic Night Mill at Sea Cruise' will 'visit exotic islands, sail across sparkling seas and have a chance to enjoy tropical cocktails, a Tahitian banquet and dance the night away'.

They will be able to play deck games, buy items at the duty-free shop and are asked to dress up for ports of call, in poolside garb, for the Equator Party or for the Captain's Table.

Apart from raising money to run the group, the event will also raise money for the group's most ambitious production next year, a yet untitled play based on an extraordinary story about experimenters conducted on two dolphins in Hawaii. The Mill Theatre will also do a major production for children.

Tickets for the party are still available and cost $10, $5 concession and $20 for a family of five. The passenger list is limited to 300 so telephone the Mill Theatre on (052) 22 2318.

enough for their idiotic behavior to be put down to mid-life crises, mainly of the sexual kind, the routines soon becomes vile, violent and vicious, varnished with an hypocrisy that is thoroughly in the style of the present decade. Australia One, 270 Collins St, 63 2837. Mon-Fri 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 8, 15. Sat 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 7, 30, 9, 30. Sun 2, 30, 5, 15, 7, 45.

RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK (NRC). Raiders recaptures the spirit of the old Saturday matinee serials with their impossible cliffhanging adventures. Indiana Jones mid-mannered professor of archaeology and whip-wielding adventurer is played by Harrison Ford with a nice balance of exuberance and calculation. Karen Allen matches him by making a gutsy, attractive broad, as willing to swing a punch at the hero as she is to accept his kisses. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 8, 15. Sun closed.

ROCKY (NRC) plus ROCKY II (NRC). Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 3081. Mon-Sat 10, 2, 30, 7, Sun 2, 30, 7.

ROCKY III (NRC). Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Mon-Sat 11, 5, 7, 15, 8. Sun 8 pm.

ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW (M). Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Tonight 11 pm.

TIME IS ON OUR SIDE (G). Although it is rock, rock, rock all the way, 'Time Is On Our Side' — a medley from the Rolling Stones' US tour last year — recalls complaints made about (a) Vivid and (b) opera. This is (a) because it all sounds much the band are belting their way through and (b) because the words being sung are usually unintelligible. Percy, 128 Bourke St, 663 4624. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 5, 8.

TURKEY SHOOT (M). East End Two, 100 Bourke St, 663 4801. Mon-Fri 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 8, 15. Sat 11, 15, 2, 15, 5, 15, 7, 30, 9, 30. Sun 2, 15, 5, 8, 15.

WACKO (M). Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2.

WE OF THE NEVER-NEVER (G). In 1902 Jeanne Guen, a 31-year-old Melbourne school-teacher, went with her new husband to set up house on the remote Northern Territory cattle station to which he had been appointed manager.

The film 'We of the Never-Nevers' could have been a powerful comedy-drama about a woman who had style, individuality and toughness. Instead it gives us a staggily paced account of a creature who never-never was. Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 3081. Mon-Sat 10, 50, 1, 50, 5, 8, 15, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

WHO DARES WINS (M). Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Mon-Sat 10, 45, 1, 45, 8, 15, 8. Sun 1, 45, 4, 50, 4, 50. End One, 100 Bourke St, 663 4801. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, 15, 8. Sun 2, 5, 8.

DINOSAURS FROM CHINA

The most ambitious, spectacular fossil display ever seen in this country. The Dinosaurs from China, feature Mamenchisaurus (Dino) a 22 metre long, plant eating dinosaur, 150 million years old. The other star is Trinitosaurus (Dino), a 5 metre tall, 70 million year old dinosaur. They are currently on loan from the Institute of Vertebrate Palaeontology and Palaeoanthropology (IVPP) Beijing.
