FILMS

CITY

BEASTMASTER (M). With a title that would look great on a zoo's food-processor and a cast whose names seem to have been lifted from the Neanderthalian telephone book, 'The Beastmaster' at least promises to be ludicrous. The plot is composed of equal parts of 'Macbeth', 'Don Quixote', 'The Magic Flute' and 'The biographies of Robin Hood, Spartacus, St Francis of Assisi, Jesus, Joe Louis and Gerald Ford. Australia Two, 270 Collins St, 63 2837. Mon-Sat 11, 7.30, Sun 2.30.
THE CLASS OF 1984 (R). A particularly vicious and manipulative example of the R-rated violence that has occupied many of Melbourne's cinemas this year and impeded the release of worthwhile films. The setting is a US high school where members of the senior class have taken over. The script is packed with idiocies and overflowing with loose ends, and the cast look as if they are stumbling through it with the help of auto-cues. East End Two, 100 Bourke St, 663 4801. Mon-Fri 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5, 7.30, 9.30, Sun 2.15, 5.15, 8.15.
DEAD MEN DON'T WEAR PLAID (M). Although 'Dead Men' is a nostalgic romp for those who are about 50 or over, it should also delight anyone who has ever succumbed to the lure of the small screen late at night or to midday movies. 'Dead Men' is an ingenious new form of parody. Clips from 17 thrillers and melodramas made between 1941 and 1950 become part of a new film. Part of the fun is guessing which familiar faces will pop up from the past, which memorable bits of old drama or bokum will be fitted into the wayward plotline. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sun 5.15, 8.15.
DUSTY plus FOR THE LOVE OF DANCE. East End One, 100 Bourke St. Sun 10.30. $5, $3, $2. 592 5027.
E.T. — THE EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL (G). 'ET' is not merely boringly old-fashioned. It is stale, like a mouldy slice of the "family fare" produced by the Disney studio in the 1960s. Ill-colored opening scenes indicate that a creature has been marooned when a flying saucer is forced to cut short its visit to Earth. The creature, ET, takes refuge at the bottom of the garden of a Californian family, consisting of a deserted wife and three shrill children. Forum One, 154 Flinders St, 63 8656. Mon-Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sun 2.15, 5.15, 8.15. Forum Two, 63 8656. Mon-Sat 10.45, 1.45, 4.45, 7.45, Sun 1.45, 4.45, 7.45.
FIRST BLOOD (M). Capitol One, 113 Swanston St, 63 4756. Mon-Fri 11, 2, 5, 8, Sat 11, 2, 5, 7.30, 9.30, Sun 2, 5, 8.
GAME OF DEATH II (M). Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 3081. Tonight 9, Sat 12.55, 2.50, 9, Sun 5.15, Mon-Wed 12.55, 2.50, 9.
INSIDE MOVES (M). Bryson Cinema, 184 Exhibition St, 662 1122. Daily 1, 5.15, 9.30.
LONELY HEARTS (M). Here is a film without serious blemish, and while its virtues are not glossy or startling, there are enough of them to make an impressive list. Peter (Norman Kaye) is 50 and his mother has just died. A lonely hearts agency introduces him to Patricia (Wendy Hughes). The simple story is about their meeting and courtship and their chances if staying together in spite of misunderstandings, interfering relatives and other problems. Roma, 255 Bourke St, 63 2510. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, Sun 2, 5, 8.
THE MAN FROM SNOWY RIVER (NRC). A Wallaby Western loosely incorporating Banjo Paterson's poem. The horses are good and the scenery is great — that is about all that can be said in praise of this film. But national sentimentality should ensure that it does well at the box office. The long-awaited film is a jerky series of scenes riddled with cliches of dialogue and action. Kirk Douglas is passable as the stern station owner and very unfunny as his brother, a one-legged prospector. Jack Thompson's brief role as Clancy seems irrelevant. Also stars Tim Burlinson as "The Man" and Sigrid Thornton. Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, Today 2,5, Midcity, 663 3081, Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, Sun 2.30, 5.15, 8, Mon-Thurs 11, 2, 5, 8.
MEGAFORCE (G). Capitol Two, 125 Swanston St, 63 7700. Mon-Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sun 2.15, 5.15, 8.15.
MONTY PYTHON LIVE AT THE HOLLYWOOD BOWL (M). One of life's few certainties is that fans of British comedy who go to 'Monty Python Live at the Hollywood Bowl' will get exactly what they expect. The film is a series of familiar sketches but it would be a sour soul who could not find quite a few laughs left in this recycled collection. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Fri 11.30, 2.30, 5.30, 8.15, Sat 11, 2, 5, 7.30, 10, Sun 2.30, 5.15, 8.
NU-VIEW VIDEO, AFI, State Film Centre, 1 Macarthur St, East Melbourne. Tonight, Tues 7.30. 347 6888.
ON GOLDEN POND (M). Bryson Cinema, 184 Exhibition St, 662 1122. Daily 11, 3.15, 7.30.
PINK FLOYD (M). Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, Sun 2, 5, 8.
POLTERGEIST (M). Has a slack and inane script with an otherwise attractive cast spending most of their time talking in irritating whispers. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, Sun 2, 5, 8.
PORKY'S (R). The setting is Angel Beach High School, Florida, one of those cinematic institutions where the purportedly teenage students look old enough for their idiotic behavior to be put down to mid-life crises, mainly of the sexual kind, the rottiness soon becomes vile, violent and vicious, varnished with an hypocrisy that is thoroughly in the style of the present decade. Australia Two, 270 Collins St, 63 2837. Mon-Sat 2.15, 5.15, 9.30, Sun 5.15, 7.45.
RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK (NRC). 'Raiders' recaptures the spirit of the old Saturday matinee serials with their impossible cliffhanging adventures. Indiana Jones mild-mannered professor of archaeology and whip-whirling adventurer is played by Harrison Ford with a nice balance of exuberance and calculation. Karen Allen matches him by making a gutsy, attractive broad, as willing to swing a punch at the hero as she is to accept his kisses. Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Mon-Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sun closed.
ROCKY III (NRC). Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 3081. Today 11, 7, Sat 11, 5, 7, Sun 2.30, 8, Mon-Thurs 11, 5, 7.
ROCKY HORROR PICTURE SHOW (M).* Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Tonight 11 pm.
SUMMER LOVERS (M). East End One, 100 Bourke St, 63 4801. Mon-Fri 11, 2, 5, 8, Sat 11, 2, 5, 7.30, 9.30, Sun 2, 5, 8.
THE SWORD AND THE SORCERER (M). Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Mon-Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sun 2.30, 5.15, 8.
TEMPEST (M). Australia One, 270 Collins St, 63 2837. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8.15, Sun 1.30, 7.45.
TIME IS ON OUR SIDE (G). Although it is rock, rock, rock all the way, 'Time is On Our Side' — a medley from the Rolling Stones' US tour last year — recalls complaints made about (a) Vivaldi and (b) opera. This is (a) because it all sounds much of a muchness whichever number the band are belting their way through and (b) because the words being sung are usually unintelligible. Bercy, 128 Bourke St,663 4634. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, Sun closed.

Judy Davis and friend, as terrorists who battle against the SAS in 'Who Dares Wins', now showing at the Cinema Centre.

TRAIL OF THE PINK PANTHER (NRC). Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 3081. Mon-Sat 11, 2, 5, 8, Sun 2.15, 5.15, 8.
TRON (G). Russell Cinema, 131 Russell St, 63 8131. Today, Sat 11, 2, 5, 7.30, 10, Sun 2, 5, 8, Mon-Thurs 11, 2, 5, 8.
WE OF THE NEVER-NEVER (G). In 1902 Jeannie Gunn, a 31-year-old Melbourne school-teacher, went with her new husband to set up house on the remote Northern Territory cattle station to which he had been appointed manager. The film 'We of the Never-Never' could have been a powerful comedy-drama about a woman who had style, individuality and toughness. Instead it gives us a sluggishly paced account of a creature who never-never was. Midcity, 200 Bourke St, 663 0381. Mon-Sat 10.50, 1.55, 5, 8, Sun 2, 5, 8.
WHO DARES WINS (M). In 'Who Dares Wins', Lewis Collins is a Special Air Services officer who infiltrates the British peace movement, which has been taken over by terrorists led by Judy Davis. The plot, inspired by the 1980 siege of the Iranian Embassy in London, is not preposterous in its basic idea, but the film's spinning of it certainly is. Cinema Centre, 140 Bourke St, 663 3303. Mon-Sat 10.45, 1.50, 4.55, 8, Sun 1.50, 4.55, 8.
YOUNG DOCTORS IN LOVE (M). East End Three, 100 Bourke St, 63 4801. Mon-Fri 11.15, 2.15, 5.15, 8.15, Sat 11.15, 2.15, 5, 7.30, 9.30, Sun 2.15, 5.15, 8.15.
