OKLAHOMA! If ever there was a musical calculated to give joy and heart to audiences in these recessionary times it is 'Oklahoma'. The plot of Rodgers and Hammerstein's first collaboration was never its strong point but its fame rests on its music, its lyrics and its dance sequences. And on all three scores, this production — directed by James Hammerstein, son of Oscar II, gives its audience full value for their money. Her Majesty's, Exhibition St, City. Tonight, Sat, Wed, Thurs 8 pm, matinees Sat, Mon, Tues, Wed 2 pm. Bookings 617 8444, Myers, Bass.
ON OUR SELECTION by Steele Rudd. As Dad would say, a bonzer show; the MTC's answer to 'Oklahoma'. 'On Our Selection' has its roots in real-life hardship and vicissitude. Steele Rudd's selectors have spent a lifetime in the backblocks battling fire, flood, bad seasons, drought, and creditors waiting to foreclose. Dramatically, the play is an untidy piece, rich in melodramatic incident and yokel humor, but short on tension and analysis. Athenaeum Theatre, Collins St, City. Mon-Fri 8.15 pm, Sat 5 pm and 8.30 pm. Bookings 654 4000.
SO YOU WANT BLOOD, Jeannie Lewis, Universal Theatre, 19 Victoria St, Fitzroy. Starts Wed 8 pm, then Tues-Sat 8 pm, Sun 5.30 pm; late show Sat 11 pm. Bookings 419 3777 and Bass.
